

Br. Thornton's notes on "Prophetic Signs Ending the High Calling"

Charles L. Thornton: November 28 Daily Heavenly Manna

When He giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? Job 34:29

WHO but He, the 'God of all comfort,' can give quietness in the midst of tumults which rise upon the soul like sudden storms upon the sea? Like ocean mariners in peril, we cry unto Him, and He bringeth us to the desired haven--blessed haven--of quietness and peace in God. What is the cry which brings this answer of peace? It is not a prayer that all occasion for disturbance shall be removed, for it is not always the divine will to bring peace to the human spirit in that way; it is not always the best way. But there is a cry which never fails to bring the quietness in which none can 'make trouble.' It is the prayer for sweet, trustful loving acquiescence in the will of God." Z. '96-259 R2058:3

Hear The Call

Lo! the day of God is breaking;

See the gleaming from afar!

Sons of earth from slumber waking,

Hail the bright and Morning Star.

CHORUS

Hear the call! O gird your armor on,

Grasp the Spirit's mighty sword;

Take the helmet of salvation,

Pressing on to battle for the Lord!

Trust in him who is your Captain;

Let no heart in terror quail;

Jesus leads the gath'ring legion,

In his name we shall prevail.

Onward marching, firm and steady,

Faint not, fear not Satan's frown,

For the Lord is with you always,

Till you wear the victor's crown.

Conq'ring bands with banners waving,

Pressing on o'er hill and plain,

Ne'er shall halt till swells the anthem,

"Christ o'er all the earth doth reign!"

Charles L. Thornton: Amen
